Web site launched 1st May 2014

Click on the links for more information

After extensive peer review, the Association for Project Management decides to print the hard copy version of Praxis as it is clearly "of value to the profession".

Praxis book published by APM

Praxis version of Project in a Box launched

Project in a Box provide a free scheduling and document management tool based on the Praxis Framework

2015

The 360° checklist-based assessment tool embeds the practices of the framework and also provides a real time maturity development dashboard.

360° assessment tool launched

3,000 visits/month

2016

4,000 visits/month

Italian & Spanish translations

Our first volunteers come forward to produce the first two translations of the framework.

2017

In three years the framework has become available in five languages.

French and Chinese translations

7,000 visits/month

2018

APMG Group launch Praxis certifications

APM Group launch foundation and practitioner certifications

Praxis local provides a simple, tailorable interface to the extensive Praxis web site. Used by companies like AMEX Global Business Travel.

Praxis Local launched

18,000 visits/month

Shandong University 'Praxis Research Centre' launched

The Praxis Research Centre at Shandong University is set up to investigate the use of Praxis in the 'One belt, one road' initiative.

The sixth and seventh translations become some of the most popular.

Dutch and Bahasa Indonesia translations

Praxis Foundation book published in Dutch

The first non-English handbook is published in The Nederlands.

Praxis is added to Van Haren's extensive collection of 'Best Practice' pocket guides.

Praxis Pocketbook launched by Van Haren

iMA Praxis research and development

iMA Praxis is the first approach that tailors a P3M framework to suit different personal styles. Research indicates that this is a very popular innovation.

2019

New iMA Praxis pages are being added to the web site incrementally and associated workshops being piloted.

iMA Praxis completion and launch

21,000 visits/month and growing

Our eighth language will be completed over the course of 2019

Polish translation

New collaborations in progress

Discussions are well underway on new collaborations that we hope to announce in 2019

As new opportunities come along, Praxis will expand and develop in new directions. Always aimed at supporting P3 managers around the world.

?